

Third Congress of Greek Mathematicians

TCGM-2026

June 29 – July 4, 2026

Athens, Greece

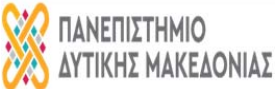

Organizers

Hellenic Mathematical Society (HMS)

in cooperation with the:

The logo of the Cyprus Mathematical Society (CMS) is a circular emblem. It features a profile of a classical Greek head, likely a philosopher, with the year "1983" above it. The text "ΚΥΠΡΙΑΚΗ ΜΑΘΗΜΑΤΙΚΗ ΕΤΑΙΡΕΙΑ" is written in a circular path around the head, and "KY.M.E." is at the bottom.	Cyprus Mathematical Society (CMS)
The logo of the Department of Mathematics, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, is a blue line drawing of a classical Greek helmet, likely a Corinthian helmet, shown in profile.	Department of Mathematics, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens
The logo of the School of Applied Mathematical and Physical Sciences, National Technical University of Athens, is a circular emblem. It features a figure, likely a classical Greek deity or philosopher, standing and holding a staff or scepter. The text "ΑΡΑΒ" is on the left and "ΠΡΟΜΗΘΕΥΣ" is on the right. First Announcement and Call for Abstracts

The Hellenic Mathematical Society (HMS) was founded in 1918 with the main goal to further and encourage the study and research in Mathematics and its numerous applications, as well as the evolvement of Mathematical Education in Greece. Today, 107 years later, the HMS has more than 12.000 members and 39 regional branches across Greece.

Amongst the main objectives of the HMS are:

- the advancement of mathematics;
- the fostering of free exchange of information between mathematicians, scientists and the society at large;
- the substantial and continuous improvement of mathematical education and the advancement of general education;
- to inform Greek mathematicians on recent progress made in science and technology and offer them practical assistance in matters which may occur during their work at school.

The Third Congress of Greek Mathematicians aims to make Athens a city of reunion of all Greek Mathematicians living in Greece and abroad.

The programme of the Congress will cover all areas of theoretical and applied mathematics. It will host plenary lectures, invited lectures, and several sessions and mini-symposia tentatively in:

Algebra and Combinatorics; Analysis; Computer Science (Mathematical Aspects); Control Theory, Operations Research and Optimization; Differential Equations and Dynamical Systems; Geometry; History and Philosophy of Mathematics; Logic and Foundations of Mathematics; Mathematical Physics; Mathematical Finance; Mathematics Education; Number Theory, Arithmetic Geometry, Cryptography; Numerical Analysis and Scientific Computing; Probability and Statistics; Topology.

The official languages of the conference are English and Greek.

Proposed mini-symposia or sessions within the Congress are welcome. Colleagues who wish to propose a session are encouraged to contact the Organizing Committee (see Contact Details below).

Venue

The Congress will be hosted at the premises of the

- National and Kapodistrian University of Athens in the building of the Department of Mathematics and
- National Technical University of Athens in the building of the Department Mathematics

Invited Speakers

The list of names of invited speakers will appear in the next announcement.

At this stage, colleagues who may be interested in attending the Congress should send a responding message with their full address, fax and e-mail to the Organizing Committee (see Contact Details below). All expressions of interest should be sent by January 20, 2026. The deadline for abstracts is March 20, 2026. The notification date for the acceptance of abstracts is April 25, 2026. Further announcements and details will be sent to those responding to this call.

Central Organizing Committee

Fellouris, Anargyros (NTUA, President of the HMS); Emmanouil, Ioannis (NKUA); Psarrakos, Panagiotis (NTUA); Burnetas, Apostolos (NKUA), Malikiosis, Romanos (AUTH).
